Protest 'Murray-gate' - the relocation of Camp Murray's gate to Tillicum's interior streets

Giving voice to values

Because Community Matters

Assistant City Manager Dave Bugher said that "if community opposition mounts Lakewood ultimately could block the project by refusing to issue a street-opening permit." (Patch, 7/20)

Please attend the rally and lend your presence and voice to preserving the viability, livability, character, and property values of the Tillicum community.

You are also invited to write letters to the editor and to decision makers. Contact us at communitymattersweb@gmail.com for the list.

Last year, Tillicum residents prepared 50 pages of complaint to this project; and 46 articles, letters to the editor, and editorial positions were registered in opposition.

Tillicum even hosted a forum that drew representatives at every level of government - from city to county to state to congress.

We thought we had made ourselves heard. Evidently we must do so again.

Thank you for taking the time to contact us; to write letters; and to
